In Flatwoods people say I'm not in any hurry, only waiting fast.

May 21

I don't worry about how long I live. I only want to live every day of my life.

May 22

Do your duty and leave the results to God.

May 23

Give me truth instead of love, money, or fame.

There are always two sides, sometimes three, to each difference.

May 24

Lessons learned in the cradle last to the grave.

May 26

A man who is always satisfied with himself is seldom satisfied with others.

May 27

Anyone likes praise but it takes a real person to take criticism.

Luck is a funny thing, the more I work the more luck I have.
