

June 7

Since we must take time to die, why not take time to live.

June 8

The search for truth becomes successful only when one lives the truth he knows.

June 9

There is joy and peace for those whose hope is in the eternal.

June 10

The measure of our reward is determined by the life we lead.

June 11

Daily guidance for the most part, comes only to those who daily seek it.

June 12

Remember our patience will achieve more than our force.

June 20

Long friendships are some times severed by a cutting remark.

June 21

We need not fear a fall if we stand up for Jesus.

June 22

We can never learn faith, in comfortable surroundings.
